An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mark Felberg on 9/20/06.

The application has been amended as follows: In claim 1, line 9, change "user." to -user; said handle assembly forming a longitudinal annular chamber running lengthwise adapted so that said strut threadedly retains said handle assembly, said handle assembly slides therein and said handle assembly may be tilted and adjusted by the user within an angle of 180 degrees.--.

Cancel claims 11 and 17-23.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Maakestad discloses an exercise device for cradling the head for sit-ups.

Phillips discloses a flexible exercise device for supporting the head and neck during sit-ups.

Barnett discloses a self conformable head support.

The prior art however fails to show or suggest the invention as detailed in claim 1, "a central panel adapted to retain a person's head and neck in an essentially immovable position; at least a pair of struts in communication with said central panel on one side and at least a pair of struts in communication with said central panel on the opposite side; and a handle assembly on one side retained by said at least pair of struts
